MARC AUREL MARCH WITH BACKPACK

The march with backpack (1x40 km or 2x40 km) gives soldiers, policemen and members of emergency services, both professional and voluntary, a chance to test their physical condition in uniform under difficult circumstances.

PARTICIPANTS

- Soldiers (active and reserve) of the Austrian military.
- Foreign soldiers.
- National and foreign policemen.
- Members of national as well as foreign rescue and relief organisations.

OTHER PARTICIPANTS

Civilians may also participate in the Marc Aurel March without backpack. Otherwise there is no difference to the military route. A different medal will be awarded to civilians. The Marc Aurel Walk (1x22 and 2x22km) is also open to civilian participants.

REGULATIONS FOR GROUP-PARTICIPATION

The march with backpack is open to individuals and groups of at least eight people (no upper limit). To complete it successfully, all checkpoints including the finish have to be passed by all participants in their respective equipment, within the given time limit of 10 hours per day. All members of a military group must arrive at checkpoints at the same time.

DRESS REGULATIONS
